The Music Instrumental Awards are for current ELTHAM College Students in their first or second instrument. Successful applicants will receive one years free tuition in their auditioned instrument. In return, successful applicants will fully commit to the Music Program and join an ensemble for the duration of their award. Applicants who do not regularly attend ensemble rehearsals and performances will forfeit their award and lessons will be charged accordingly.

The Music Instrumental Awards are awarded on the basis of an excellent audition in the student's chosen instrument, their musicality and their commitment to the ELTHAM College Music Program and its Ensembles.

Award applicants are asked to prepare the following for their audition:

- Two pieces from their current repertoire;
- Be prepared to perform technical repertoire appropriate to their current level of playing;
- Complete sight-reading at an appropriate to their current level of playing;
- Be prepared to complete some simple aural tests appropriate to their current level of playing;
- Answer general questions about their commitment to their instrument and the Music Ensemble program.
