

Caltex 'All-Rounder' Award Application Form

Overview

The Caltex Best All Rounder Award is one of Australia's most prestigious secondary education recognition awards. For over 30 years, it has been presented to final year students acknowledging their all round contributions to their schools and communities. The successful applicants will have brought value to and built capacity in the communities in which they live and work. They will have made a meaningful difference to those communities, addressing a range of problems facing youth education and health, safety, or under-served communities.
