

Overview

Scott Coffey Drama Encouragement Awards are granted to students who show passion and dedication in their pursuit of dramatic experiences. This award encourages enthusiast drama students to further their skills, knowledge and understanding by attending specialist classes, purchasing relevant resources and attending professional productions or theatrical events. This award will encourage two of our young people to pursue the dramatic arts and take advantage of its holistic benefits. Scott Coffey is an ELTHAM alumni who found confidence, acceptance and academic success in the dramatic arts whilst at the College.

The recipient of the award will be notified early in Term 4, followed by an announcement to the College community. The achievements of the award winner will be celebrated at the Senior School Celebration Evening each year.

Award: $500.00 award for both a Year 7 or 8 student and a Year 9, 10 or 11 student.

Criteria

- A personal and specific desire to pursue theatrical experiences not available to the recipient currently
- Demonstration of commitment to the performing arts both curricular and co-curricular
- Demonstration of aesthetic awareness and creativity across the creative arts in particular drama
- You must be a current ELTHAM College student

Letter of Consideration

Please attach a supporting document that details your experiences in drama, how those experiences have shaped your dedication to the art form, your reasons for applying, and what you would do with the funds if awarded. Your application may include personal anecdotes regarding the positive outcomes drama at ELTHAM has had on your life, and examples of how you pursue the form in your own time. Please make sure you address the selection criteria listed above.

- The panel will review each application and students may be invited to discuss their application with a selection panel.
- After receiving the award the student must be prepared to write to the Coffey family to inform them how this award has made a difference to them and the letter must also include a photo.
- Students must also be prepared to have their story told in the College Family News or similar publication
